No Goodbyes To The Lord

Dangers encamp around us all
All of which can never be measured
Even the seasons are against us
No transportation no communication
The oceans are our last hope
Confronting and colliding with us
I was tearful because of these perils
Never was not a teary-eyed gone by

The enemies are all against us
I hoped the Lord can help us

Protect and defend us
As we finish this so-called life
The Lord can never be defeated
Even if the fighting gets tougher
For there is future in the Lord
He is resurrected once more

The Son of God is our ever light
He’ll help us walk on seawater
The waves will not drown us
Like feet on water we can do
No matter how large the waves
Like smooth texture to my feet
I will walk a hundred walks
As long as I walk with the Lord

The Lord speaks to me
That whatever I do I do with great faith
A faith that will never diminish
And that which is heavier than the Earth
An immutable faith like God’s
That is never compromised
That sees the end from the beginning
That doesn’t differ from the Lord’s

The Lord wants me to collect
Enjoy the faith that I every day have
That stands and never sways
Leaning on the strong bamboo store
Like the car that doesn’t move
Where my family is happily riding
Death has lost its sting

The Lord will help us recover from grief
And never will we again be bereaved
Our love and life will be restored
With emotions not hard
The Spirit of the Lord will always be with us
His love is so high
And as big as the Earth
Never was there a dull boring moment

The love of the Lord is as red as the sun sky
His light penetrates our problems
The atmosphere rains love on us
Like the salt has not lost its saltiness
Wherever we go the Lord is there

Wherever we move the Lord is our shadow
I was teary-eyed but never again
For I am happy with the Lord without saying goodbyes

The Lord Is My Beautiful Song Forevermore

Where shall we go for safety but to the Lord
When the times fail us
When the scorching heat of the sun hurt us
When there is sadness everywhere
When we cannot go back to the past
When we see new things on the horizon
What shall we perform to ease our pain
Everytime everynear

I don’t know where to go but to the Lord
For He is my Beautiful Song
Forevermore
I can’t say where the wind is coming from and going
Especially on the riverside
Where there’s just so much trouble
And where forests receive their presence
The beauty of the Lord’s songs are upon us
We can hear and listen to them
There will never be a lost tune or tone
Finally ever upon us

I Will Jump Into Restless Waters

The Lord says Your life is not yet over
For I will give you something to do
The things I will give you will not slide
You will fly like the birds and walk like the deer
I will be your lightning and thunder guiding you
I will be your cool wind soothing your pain
And I will be your words by the Holy Spirit

You may struggle but will not fail

Our efforts will not be in vain
You will understand what you are doing
I will remain to be your support
You will not give up because of thorns
You will not stumble and fall

You will not feel cold because of the storm
Your face will forevermore look at the Lord
The Lord will give you a ring of love
You will not be nervous nor discouraged
Your bones will never feel abandoned
Your eyes will never shed tears of sorrow

I will give you a white pure robe of righteousness
That will never be as black as coal
Your hands will ever be so strong
Two will be you and I
So that in forests or jungles
You will be my defense and offense

Death will never be over you

For you will have eternal life
You will live as long as you can
And will not be under the influence of pain
You will always smile
And not be bored by short-lived life

The chaff will definitely be destroyed
The wheat and tears will be separated
Like laughter and crying
The Lord will divide the enemies
And bring them back to Him
As long as they repent of their sins

So don’t be afraid of the waves of life
For the Lord will guide you through restless waters
And you will be able to jump and walk on it
For we have suffered great pain and suffering already
The masks have finally been removed
As the sun is in the highest
And laughter is all around us

The ocean waves will soothe your soul
And you will forget the pain of tomorrow
The Lord welcomes you in His loving arms
So that you will ascend to His Heavenly Throne
And rest and sleep
And rest and sleep no more

I Need You Lord Always

O Lord Jesus Christ You are my Sun
You can always hear my every petition
To be born on Earth is a daunting task
But rest assured You will always guide

You always help me walk on the narrow path
You are not too busy to guide me
I am the ever love of Your life
You also walk with me until I reach home

The nature provides for my needs
And death can never surpass me

The oceans and waters threaten
But the fox holes provide protection

So I must finish the race walk the narrow road and keep the faith
Every person in the world will witness my faith
And will be amazed and inspired
That You are my love and I am Your bride

Your Whispers Of Love

The bird sings beautiful songs to You Lord
And the flowers bloom and dance
While the wind does these things
I long for the Lord’s return and second coming
The peoples of the world are expecting
The whispers of love are dominating

Please guide us always Father in this sea of misery
Whatever we do may we do it in love and peace

May the past present and future be in our favor
Please be it near not far from us our wishes dry

May we not separate Lord from each other
Forgive my sins and forget the wounds and scars
For I want to live and not die
For it is good to live in abundance game

You are old but new Lord
Life is short but Your are eternal
May we be ready for the Rapture
This world of weeping affects us so
I don’t want to stay in it for so long

Love is not buried if you search for it
The world is not a peaceful place
So many are the wars in this battlefield
Where winds blow and ocean waves are aggressive

The wind blows cold with comfort
Man is ever shaking and terrified
Men mock and scoff at each other more
Bitter are days of my life in this

The air whispers love of devotion
And the flowers are pollinated
The whispering continues still
And the prayers of nations are answered
So that there will be worldwide peace

Greater Than Idols

I will not separate myself from the Lord
He is my Earth and Heaven
The wheat and tears are a beautiful song
The harvest is nearing its completion
I woke up one rainy morning
The mountains cannot be seen
The Lord gave me flowers as a sign of His love
And He promised to be with me all the time

With the Lord my soul is not heavy but light

My heart will always be His forevermore
The noon today is scorchingly hot
Even the whole day of tomorrow
We got past the corn plantation
And took a bite and took a sigh
To cut the corn and eat is not a sin

The sun is worshipped but not God
Even the night there are gods for
The soul must only worship God
Even the hotness and wetness is made pious
The sun must not be loved above God
Or you will experience lack
And shed tears because of the sin of idolatry

I can still hear the Lord in my ears
Telling me to avoid idolatry
He loves me so and will prevent me from sinning
Through the wind He delivers to me His message Messages of love and becoming

For I will not be in vain
As long as the Lord is with me
You will always be with me

So thank You Lord for being ever faithful to me
I will not have to wait for You are already by my side
The plants feed me and they come from the Lord
The winds and waters even bless me through Him
They respect and love the Lord
No sadness will overtake me only love
I will always hear Your voice with love
For You will always bring me home

Power Over

You are my source of brightness Lord
You help me see the faraway blessings
The ocean waves cannot penetrate me
The seas are right ever below me
The cliffs don’t pose any threat to me
The rocks and stones they cannot hurt me
Shipwrecks and accidents don’t frighten me
The flames of fire I will engulf and pry successfully

The waters beyond the shore are controlled by the Lord
The Lord saves man on sands of hope
Where there are no broken bones
There can be no deaths on the sinking
How lovely are the sunrise and sunset
I and the Lord were treading with footprints
He makes me feel the length and width and height and depth of nature
The Lord loves us very much He gave us this life

The Lord provides us with rain and drinking water
The beach to enjoy and the shore to play
The waves of the sea are ever before us
Priceless waters because they are many
The Lord’s beautiful sunrise and sunset magnify Him
The flowers are blossoming and are beautiful
The sun is definitely the Son of God because of His power and might

How good it is to appreciate God’s glory by living in His Word and commandments

Man without the Lord is futile
Evil and vile he will always be
The Earth will be corrupted and polluted because of him
Even the seas will be full of killed
Only the Lord can restore him to his former state
Beautiful and perfect in all degrees
The Earth experiences disaster as a reminder of man’s stubbornness to follow the Lord
The perfumes in all the world emit a pleasant smell but man cannot understand his putridness
His heart beats faster and faster but he is not ready for the Lord’s second coming
The birds and stars above start to fall but man still can’t discern the times and seasons

The Lord always guides me when I sleep
I find complete rest in Him
He brings me to dreams of beautiful worlds in the Universe
He brings me to the deepest oceans and I never drown
The Earth the Lord loves so much
He brings me to Heaven and back again
He loves me so much and I love Him back as much
His countenance is shining brightly all along

The Lord is my light all the time
Always and forever from the past to the present to the future
The Lord forbids sinning against Him
And He doesn’t want us to commit murder and crime
The course we walk must always be according to the Lord’s
No foolishness or vain can escape the Lord’s wrath
The stars the Lord will always intellify

Even the depths of the heart and waters the Lord knows intimately

The Lord is very important to my life
As the sun shines brightly so is my love for the Lord
The past doesn’t matter when your sins are forgiven
To sleep and rest in salvation must always be done
I am always awake because the Lord gives me power
Sadness and sorrow are nothing in the present
The Lord paid the price for our sins
To trust and have faith in Him is an utmost run

The Lord wants me to love my neighbors and forgive them for their sins against me
To love their souls and spirit and never count the cost

He wants me to help them when they’re in trouble
Their lives are more important than little creatures
We all came from the soil so we must love one another faithfully
We must spend time knowing our problems and solving them with the help of the Lord
From birth to death let us also love the Lord with all our heart mind soul and strength
From birth let us know the Lord and worship Him without ceasing

I will always cherish the Lord’s love for me
He is my ever Holy Judge and Friend
For He doesn’t allow His creation to fall
Everything and everyone is beautiful in His eyes
And He is truthful and faithful in all His promises
His light never fades nor it weakens

The darkness always hides from Him and His presence
Light has conquered darkness after all

There is love and happiness in the Lord always
The Lord gives and protects us from pain
He doesn’t want us to go to the outer darkness when we die
We came from dust and to dust we will die
The Lord is the greatest of all Gods
He is our light and He loves us so
He will come in the near future to bring us to His kingdom
For the Lord is our Giver of all beautiful things

The Lord is the only Love of my life
Everything is easy with the Lord Jesus Christ
He is my strength He sees to it always
He gives me everything I need
There is no hard future with Him

He shows me love and mercy
The light never encounters the darkness
I never sleep because the Lord grants me this

The thunder and lighting are ever before us
They don’t stop until the Lord commanded them
Even the strong winds are unrelenting
The waves are also like flying
The waves are like daggers and swords ready to hit and kill
The horizon is colored red because of the sea’s violence
The sun is hostile too like war
That reminds us of the violence of the ocean

The animals in the field are happy to meet the Lord
Though there may be storms and typhoons they are not afraid

The ships are affected but the people are still smiling
They turn their backs on them because they trust the Lord
I am a rider and a pursuer in the Lord
I don’t sleep because the Lord provides me with I travel the ever dangerous oceans seas and waters
Because the Lord is the love of my life and the light thereafter

My Love For You Lord

The Lord teaches me poetic rhymes and meters
Your whispers Lord are beautiful in my ears
You bring me to abundant landscapes
I meet birds that sing Your praises
The fire doesn’t consume me because You guide me
The summer sun doesn’t burn me because of You
I never feel sad because of You
I never feel weak and feeble
The days are neverending against the nights

Where the winds are cold and not warm
You protect me from the floodgates of hell
And from the storm from the typhoon devastating
From the fountains of the deep
You feed me while I’m in the desert dry
You sing songs to me with beautiful rhyme
You always are a beauty to me
You protect me from the locusts’ swarm
You always give me new beautiful things to enjoy
You give me food clothes and shelter
You protect me from the large waves of the sea
From the group of frogs that devour the valley
The Lord is my valley of rhyme and meters
The night has no power over Him
The mighty ocean wavers don’t linger
The morning starts with a beautiful sunrise

The day ends with a gorgeous sunset
You Lord makes plants and trees bear fruits
The fruits become ripe ready to be eaten
The wind blows from west to east and north to south
The boring stars and constellations finally shed some light
And they are as shining radiating white as You Lord
Your love reaches new lengths widths heights and depths
The darkness has no power over Your light
The humble exalts Your name
No bush or wildfire will ever succeed
The mountains will not disappear
No trees will be cut off and damaged because of You
No buildings will ever be destroyed by earthquakes
You write Your Word and Will on the hearts of those who love You

Nothing is strange to them because they love You
You give us enough gold to enjoy and possess
They truly shine in beauty
You give us air to breathe freely
You give me fruits of the vine
The skies are beautifully blue because of You
Our dreams You create to help us sleep continuously
We sing songs of love and compassion
These songs are Yours Lord for Your greater glory, honor and power

Always By My Side

The Lord is standing in the narrow road
He is waiting for me to walk in it
A love story between me and the Lord
No dust is wasted in walking back to home
I am not tired or weary in this journey
I am not weak or feeble because it is the Lord’s path
He is full of light and life
He doesn’t depart from my side

The Lord saves me from all danger
He doesn’t fall short of His help for me

Whenever I’m lost He always finds me
Even vast oceans can’t hide me
The Lord always gives me good health and wealth
I am not down but always uplifted because of the Lord
My heart always finds happiness in the Lord
No death have power over me anymore

The Lord loves us always though at times we are hard-headed
The redness or intensity of our nature the Lord overcomes
The battles we win are won by the Lord
Even the strongest nations cannot prevail
Only a few of us meet death because the Lord is our life
No ammunition or rifle can hit us because it’s the Lord that protects us
Our souls are for the Lord who loves us very much
Death has no power over the living in us

No death could overcome me because of the Lord
I would not sleep but always be on guard for the Lord’s return
I won’t mourn because it is the Lord that I love
I have forsaken all for You Lord
I have an end in sight in You Lord
I don’t have anything to bring along with me
Only my soul and spirit and my future glorified body
The beginning has finally met its ending

The Lord is what and who matters most
The black blue sky brings gifts of rain
The birds in the air sing praises to the Lord
My dogs are friendly to me and the Lord
The chair was built for our rest
Our knowledge comes from the Lord
Even the wisest of man don’t understand
Where to go following the Lord

Weapons of mass destruction will not win
With the Lord there is no death
There will be no sunset anymore with the Lord
For we will not sleep in Heaven but do good works of diligence
All our tasks will be given by the Lord because of our great faith in Him
We will be consistent with our works
For in Heaven there is no more darkness nor evil
We will be forevermore with our loved ones in faith on Earth

My prayers to the Lord Jesus Christ are always granted
For my race is run and my course is finished
It is our destiny to be with the Lord forevermore
We are not bound by any desert places
Our tears will be wiped dry

There is no wasted efforts to be with the Lord
There is no stopping in loving the Lord
For it is destined that after we die we will be with the Lord if and only when we loved Him so much while on Earth

We will not stay on Earth forever
For the Lord will come during the Rapture
He will fight our battles and win our wars
I will find rest and comfort in Him
I won’t cry another tear
For the party and feast will commence now
Death has lost its power over us with glorified bodies
Our trials and tribulations are forever finished

No More Illnesses

I will hold on to the Lord always
For He will uplift my soul and spirit and carry me on eagle’s wings
I will not age because the work of the Lord is ever beautiful in my sight
I will be as strong and powerful and fast as horses running
Yes I will ride horses ins super speed
The day has a new beginning always with the Lord
The sunrise is as beautiful as the clay in the potter’s hand

I was observing beautiful sceneries at the gate which the Lord has made
I was dreaming of the Lord who loves me very much
We walked on the ocean with me having great faith
The sun is very scorchingly hot at that time
Even the sands mark my footprints with the Lord’s
And the green pastures make known their fields to us
From north to south and west to east the news of the Lord is great
Never will I be double minded double lifed and backslidden anymore
There is no far but only near with the Lord
And the skies are always beautifully made because of His work
The sheep are all protected from danger
No distance is not treadable because of His might and power

Even the trees along the way worship the Lord
No running entities can ever escape the chasing beings
I will always remember the times I am with the Lord
Even the grasses are joyful to sit on
And the roads are easy to tread along
I have loosen my life for the Lord
I am not happy because I depend on Earth
The animals are happy and wild running in the wildernesses
They run fast because they depend on the Lord
Nothing is so very hard and difficult with the Lord
I had a dream where I was waking blissfully with the Lord
Where I began to understand His love for me
The Lord is my sun He scorches my enemies away to bring them back to Him

The Lord helps me unpack my many things
You lead me through quiet waters
You are my Leader and I am your man
And we travelled together to the comfort of our souls
No waters are deep or dangerous enough while I’m with You
We keep on singing because of the joy the Lord brings
The Lord helps me see the future
No wars and battles will ever win against me for the Lord is always with me
The fruits of His labor will always feed me with delicious food
No sea or ocean is to deep for me to walk on foot because of the Lord
The Lord is always honing my spiritual skills on Earth so that I will be ready for His Heavenly Throne in the near future

Time is ever above us having power over us but the Lord is above time

The Lord will never forsake us nor leave us nor ignore us
I will always sing beautiful songs before the Lord
For He is always by my side helping me all the time
He is my ever Friend and War Comrade
My ever faithful co-soldier in World War 1 and 2
The Lord cannot be defeated by any and all enemy soldiers and artilleries
He will never leave me alone in times of trials and tribulations
The Lord invents beautiful things and I sing songs of praise for Him
Where are the other people who don’t worship the Lord?
They are gone taken by the wind
They are gone into the past places
Because of their hardheartedness and stubbornness
I am with the Lord always because He loves me so much

The Lord guides me even in conducting my God-given business
He is always concerned about my performance

The Lord protects me from all danger
From all the people that mean me harm
From the waters that may drown me
And the people that may cause severe poverty
Those that may cause me wretchedness and wreck
The horrible events that also happen in movies
And the horses that may cause you to fall and break your neck
Only faith in the Lord’s grace will ever save you and me

Only the Lord gives me everlasting life
I will go to Heaven because of the Lord’s help and approval

The waters and trees in Heaven are so beautiful
There are many fountains and waterfalls too
Only the Lord is the sun moon and stars and everything else
I can touch the sun without getting burned because the sun is the Lord
I can sleep on the grasses with flowers spread
My mansion in Heaven is so big and beautiful too
There are flowery and treesy and gardenly and buildingly designs inside and out
The children around the house are playing blissfully

I will not sleep most of the time because there’s just so much to do
Because the Lord is your sleep and rest
You are not dead but alive forevermore
The living beings in Heaven remember everything very clearly

We will ever forget the problems and trials and tribulations on earth and live with happy blissful everlasting life
We will see the future past and present and we will travel to these times and the places that are connected to them
Nothing is ever weak in Heaven for all are strong
Heaven is just the best thing that can happen to anyone on earth
For nothing is ever bad evil sinful or transgressing in it
